Data Release Rules for the Taiwan National Defense Survey

1. The applicant (data user) shall not provide the data to other individuals or organizations in any form (including but not limited to copying or reproduction) or sell the data without the agreement of the Institute for National Defense and Security Research (INDSR).
2. Usage of the data is limited to research, teaching, policy analysis, or other purposes that have been agreed by INDSR.
3. Data users must ensure the anonymity and privacy of respondents.
4. If there are multiple data users, they must be listed on the Data Request form, and each data user must complete a separate Data Request Form.
5. Data users who use the survey data in written works (including conference papers, journal articles, doctoral and master theses, policy reports, monographs, and manuscripts) must include the following acknowledgment in English or Chinese.

The data used herein are taken entirely (or in part) from the Taiwan National Defense Survey (TNDS) of the Institute for National Defense and Security Research (INDSR) (<https://indsr.org.tw/>). The TNDS is conducted by the Election Study Center of National Chengchi University on behalf of INDSR. The authors would like to thank the above-mentioned organizations for providing the data. However, the contents of this article are the sole responsibility of the authors.

6. Data users must notify INDSR of the bibliographic information of all written works (including conference papers, journal articles, doctoral and master theses, policy reports, monographs, and manuscripts) using this survey data within one month of its publication or issue for the reference of other data users.
7. The applicant (data user) is legally responsible for any violation of the data usage rules, and INDSR will permanently revoke the applicant's right to use the data in case of violations.

8. By submitting this application, the applicant agrees to the above rules for data use.

Data Release Process:

Step 1: Applicants follow the Google Form link on the website of the Taiwan National Defense Survey (url) and complete the “Data Request Form.”

Step 2: After receiving the application, INDSR checks that it meets the requirements. If any additional information is required, INDSR will contact the applicant by email.

Step 3: The requested data are sent to the applicant by email.
